Annual plan of the municipality

The council will spend more on schools and on care for older residents than in previous years, and it will publish a progress report every quarter.