Outlook

The left column is read first. Management expects demand to stay firm and plans to open four new stores in the coming year.

The right column is read second. Capital spending will rise to fund the new stores and a second distribution centre.